  - or
  - b) English at level B2 or higher, if they are planning to take up second-cycle studies in English.

2.3. Thematic areas of activities carried out under the Programme

The Programme makes it possible to obtain a scholarship from the NAWA Director to take up full-time second-cycle studies in Poland at university-type higher education institutions (HEIs) supervised by the Minister of Science and Higher Education, which have concluded a framework agreement with NAWA. Moreover, the Programme enables free education at public universities.

The list of university-type HEIs supervised by the Minister of Science and Higher Education, which have concluded a framework agreement with NAWA, constitutes Attachment 2 to the Announcement.

The Applicant chooses the study programme and the language of education based on the offer of the HEIs listed in Attachment 2 to the Announcement. Information about studying in Poland can be found at <https://study.gov.pl/>. Information about study programmes (the offer of Polish universities) is available at: <https://study.gov.pl/studyfinder>.

It is not possible under the Programme to undertake courses of study under double degree agreements.

NAWA does not act as intermediary in the Applicants' admission process to the HEIs. The Applicants participate in the admission process at the university-type HEIs of their choice on their own and independently of the application for participation in the Programme. The Applicants should learn about the admission requirements, including requirements regarding the command of Polish or English and the rules of holding potential language exams.
